CIRCULAR NO. 04 -SVC of 2014
DATED:- 17 .12.2014

Subject:- Use of Website for Tender Document Publication.

In exercise of powers conferred upon the J&K State Vigilance Commission under section 8(1)(h) of the Jammu and Kashmir State Vigilance Commission Act, 2011, the following Circular instructions are hereby, issued for strict compliance and implementation by all Government Departments and Public Sector Undertakings/Govt. Companies/Societies involved in procurement of stores.

As a method of improving e-governance and bringing greater transparency in the administration, it is impressed upon all Government Departments, Public Sector Undertakings and Government Companies and Societies, owned or controlled by the State Government, to ensure that the tenders issued for procurement of stores and/or execution of works are, besides publication in local dailies, are also uploaded on the official website of the department. This becomes even more important because it has been generally observed that tenders are generally published in newspapers with meager circulation. Giving wide publicity to tendering process would induce a healthy competition and in turn ensure procurement of quality stores and execution of quality works at reasonable rates.

In vigilance related inquiries undertaken by the Commission the use of official website for publication of tender notices would be deemed to be sufficient compliance of rules regarding wide publicity of tender notices.

In order to ensure compliance of these instructions, it would be incumbent upon all the Departments to create an official website, in case they do not have one as on date. The Departments, Public Sector Undertakings, Govt. Companies and Societies, should, if the need be, have the rules regarding procurement in their Organizations amended so that publicity through the website becomes mandatory.

Issued by Order of the Commission.

Secretary 17/12/14.
